

GENEROUS STUDENTS from Fife College Prince's Trust have raised £500 for the Kingdom Abuse Survivor's Project (KASP).

The money was raised by a series of fund-raising activities including a charity walk, cake and candy stall and a car wash.

Lynne Simpson from KASP accepted the cheque at a special event held at St Brycedale Church.

The students were also presented with certificates to mark the completion of their course.

Prince's Trust courses are free and open to those aged between 16 to 25.

The next course is due to get under way on Monday September 20.

For further details contact Gordon Hush on 07946 595299.

● Lynne Simpson (centre right) receives the cheque.